Minister's Manual for churches of Christ

A valuable resource, including sermons, outlines, Scripture readings, wedding ceremonies, funeral services, visitation, evangelism, and more!

Edited by Jim Bill McInteer (1921-2010)

In 1939, Jim Bill McInteer began his preaching career in Whites Creek, Tennessee. He served with churches in AR, KS, KY, and TN. He preached over 3,000 sermons at the West End church of Christ in Nashville, Tenn. — never repeating a sermon to the same audience during those three decades. He also preached in 37 states and nine foreign countries.

Jim Bill served on several boards and received numerous prestigious awards and honorary degrees. Harding University in Searcy, AR, named their Bible building in his honor.

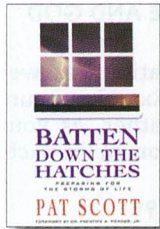

He loved preaching and loved those who proclaimed the Good News. This manual is one of the legacies he leaves to those who preach.

Truth Be Told

Kyle Butt & Eric Lyons

If you have ever spent much time looking through popular science textbooks, you know that sprinkled in among accurate, solid scientific facts are evolutionary assumptions and false ideas. For this reason, Truth Be Told was written as a compilation and refutation of these false evolutionary ideas. This latest edition has a new layout and design, three additional chapters, and 35 more pages of material.

Books By F. LaGard Smith

AFTER LIFE: A GLIMPSE OF ETERNITY BEYOND DEATH'S DOOR

Smith explores what the Scriptures tell us about death, hades, heaven, and hell. He also challenges the current fascination with Rapture and end-times theories as well as the afterlife beliefs of Seventh-day Adventists, Jehovah's Witnesses, Mormons, and Roman Catholics.

COT 09660-06046 Paper, $18.99

ANGELS, DEMONS, AND THE DEVIL

Are angels real, and if so, do they touch our lives today? What about demons and the devil? F. LaGard Smith conducts a one-on-one "interview" with Michael the archangel to answer these questions and discover the biblical truth about angels, demons, and the devil.

CIRCLES OF FELLOWSHIP

There is a quiet revolution going on among churches of Christ that questions our identity and fellowship. LaGard Smith addresses this challenge in his update of "Who Is My Brother." He proposes five different levels of fellowship for us to consider.

COT 978-09660-06070 Paper, $15.99

Books by Weldon Langfield*i Forgive:
An Inner Lane Toward Forgiveness
by Kevin Beneby

Sooner or later, every one of us will either offend another or be hurt, or both. It is inevitable and will, most likely, happen many times. Often, we don't know how to forgive or to be forgiven. For us to be able and willing to forgive when we have been mistreated or abused is important. Our heavenly Father instructed us to be ready to forgive one who sins against us.

Kevin Beneby, in his book, I Forgive: An Inner Lane Toward Forgiveness has included biblical injunctions as well as practical reasoning, suggestions, and solutions to help us react appropriately to any offense. His examples and recommendations will be helpful to the reader as the need for forgiveness occurs.

24 ISSUES/RELIGIONS/EVIDENCES

SET IN STONE

by Larry Swaim, Th.D. - Most people can recite the Ten Commandments from memory. God also gave His people two additional commandments. Together, these 12 commandments give us a view of God's plan for man's happiness and salvation. This book takes readers through each commandment to show how they give us a clear understanding of what God expects from us.

12 COMPELLING TRUTHS

by Dewayne Bryant - As the Bible comes under an ever-increasing attack from the world, it is important that we prepare to defend our faith when we encounter questions from others and even ourselves.

2CC 978-089098-4772 Paper, $13.99

PREPARE TO ANSWER

by Rubel Shelly - In this classic work on apologetics, the author does not insist that Christian faith depends on rationalistic explanation, but he does contend that believers should be open to the current findings of science. God and His Word are more logical than the faith presuppositions of non-theistic modern thought.

COMPASSIONATE CREATOR

by Bruce Morton - Jesus' story urges us to make sense of His uncommon birth and life in light of first-century Roman and Jewish culture. It is the story of a land caught up in social, political, and spiritual struggle. The Gospels of Matthew, Luke, and John beckon us to consider our compassionate Creator in His world and by so doing dare to see our world and ourselves more clearly.

RENEWED

by Bruce Morton - Cultural shifts today are oddly similar to the culture and thought surrounding ancient Colossae. Today's pagan influences are challenging our views of Jesus, the church, and the family. Morton's research reveals our need for vigilance.

DECEIVING WINDS: CHRISTIANS NAVIGATING THE STORMS OF MYSTICISM, LEADERSHIP STRUGGLES & SENSATIONAL WORSHIP

Discussion questions included.

SHOWTIME!

WORSHIP IN THE AGE OF SHOW BUSINESS

LifeLINKS to God

Four Basic Goals:

1. CONNECT – All the dedicated teaching in the world does no good unless the teacher makes a connection with students. There must be an activity to draw students into the Bible lesson.
2. TEACH – The primary goal of every lesson is to accurately and effectively teach God's Word.
3. APPLY – Students need to see the Bible as relevant to their everyday lives. Scripture speaks their language and is the solution to their problems at home, at school, and at play.
4. MOTIVATE – Knowing Bible facts doesn't always translate into action. Every lesson should close with a call to action.

connect

CONNECT helps youth leaders speak about difficult subjects to young people, including those who may have already endured hard circumstances. Sessions have practical tips and training to help leaders (from new volunteers to seasoned veterans) be sensitive to the particular needs of teens who are experiencing the effects of stress, trauma, change, and conflict in their lives.

One age-level for all: Designed to be used for both young teens and high school students, with optional deeper questions for high school/more sophisticated students.

Aim for Restoration - by Dr. Barry Cole Poyner (5151): The early church was too busy being the church to concern itself with restoring the church. In this study, Barry Poyner looks at what those first-century Christians thought and practiced with implications for us as 21st-century Christians. These lessons aren't a history lesson on restoration; they are, instead, a fascinating look at the heart and thrill of restoration as we seek to be God's people in the world today.

Sharing The Faith - by Dorn Muscar, Jr. (5182): As Christians, we may wonder how best to share our faith with those in our lives who may not have obeyed the gospel. We want others to know and love God as much as we do. When we consider the gospel of Christ, we see the excellence of God, including His wisdom, power, righteousness, justice, mercy, love, patience, and grace. Sharing the faith with others means living out for others to see in our words and actions those same qualities. Dorn Muscar, Jr. dives into the Book of Romans to show us how.

Uniquely Luke - by Phillip Eichman (5168): All of the Gospel accounts of Jesus tell roughly the same story of His life, ministry, death, and resurrection. However, Luke offers additional information not found in the other Gospels. Were it not for these stories from this practicing physician, we might have missed valuable eyewitness accounts from Jesus' life. This study looks at the unique material found only in the Gospel of Luke and gives readers a deeper understanding of Jesus and the life He lived.

What About Now? - by Glenn Newton and James Farris (5175): We're all looking forward to spending eternity with the Father. But we shouldn't forget what we should be doing while we're here. Of course, we should anticipate a home with no pain, suffering, death, or tears, but we can't be in such a hurry that we fail to reach those around us with God's Word so that they, too, can look forward to heaven. In What About Now?, Glenn Newton and James Farris delve into 2 Peter and Jude to answer that very question. We can all learn from Peter's letter how we should be living, learning, and serving now.

CORNERSTONE topics

But God - By Edward J. Robinson (8268): Two of the most important words in the Bible are arguably "But God." The Book of Genesis uses the phrase four times in chapters 45-50 in the life of Joseph. These two words are a powerful testament to God's power to work in dark and bleak circumstances for His glory and honor. More importantly, these words also mean that God ultimately has the last word, not us. In this study, you'll learn how these powerful words attest to God's power, sovereignty, and His unconditional love.

Faith Lessons from the Life of Jacob- By Terence Highsmith (8251): In this anticipated follow-up to Faith Lessons from the Life of Abraham, Highsmith continues the journey of faith lessons from the lineage of Christ. From Jacob's strife with his twin brother to his search for a wife to his wrestling with God, Faith Lessons from the Life of Jacob teaches us how we can continue our own paths of faithfulness despite any obstacles we encounter.

Knowing and Claiming God's Promises - By Michael A. Brown (8244): This world attempts to pull our focus in innumerable directions. Whether work, family, friends, politics, sports, or anything else, it seems everyone wants our attention. Our focus as Christians, however, should be squarely on God and the work He does in our lives every day. We can keep our focus on Him through His Word, and it's in His Word that we find the promises He's made to us. In this series of lessons, readers will learn that there can be no greater assurance in life than to know that God's promises rest with us throughout the challenges and changes of our shared human experience in this world.

Sharpening Your Spiritual Sword - By William Jones (8275): God's provided us with an arsenal for our protection. One of the most powerful tools at our disposal is His Word. In his letter to the church at Ephesus, Paul refers to the Word of God as "the sword of the Spirit" (Ephesians 6:17). In this study, Jones teaches readers how to properly and powerfully use this sword so that, like Christ, you can respond to any attempts at temptation from the devil with "it is written."

Dr. John Hobbs believes that the Bible is the authoritative word of God (John 12:48; Rev. 20:12; Matt. 4:4; 1 Cor. 4:6). Without apology John writes with a strong emphasis on Scripture. He started preaching at the age of fourteen and has been preaching for the Churches of Christ ever since. Dr. John Hobbs is the nephew of A. G. Hobbs, a conservative evangelist and tract writer. John's father served as an elder along with two of his uncles. John's aunt is Lottie Beth Hobbs who has written many religious books. John is a conservative Christian writer and a diligent student of the Bible, earning two Doctor of Ministry degrees (one in Church Growth and one in Theology), five Masters degrees (four are in religion and one is in education), and five diplomas from Bible correspondence schools. # THE GOING FORTH SERIES

BY DR. CARREN MARVIN

In writing the first five books of the Bible, also called the Pentateuch, Moses describes in vivid detail how the world was created, teaches us about how God remains with us even on the toughest journeys to better places, and provides us with a set of laws for how to conduct our lives, all the while introducing us to concepts, precepts, and significant characters through whom we learn more about our God.

Dr. Carren Marvin, in her series Going Forth, takes readers on an amazing journey through the Pentateuch as they learn more about their Father and themselves.

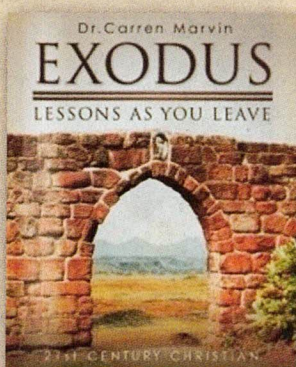

Whether by design or accident, we all devote time to other things or people. Family. Work. Friends. Sleep. Food. Social media. These things usurp our energy and our attention. We devote ourselves to these idols when we know we should place greater emphasis on the One who made us to be in relationship with Him.

Throughout Numbers are glimpses of ways we can more fully devote ourselves to a worshipful relationship with God through daily worship.

Dear Customer,

This catalog is an earnest attempt to offer the most useful selection of books and supplies to accommodate the needs of thousands of churches, ministers, Bible class teachers and Christian families. Since we are not able to select which items are included in this catalog, we are not able to endorse all the authors, Bible versions, or materials which are included. The presence of a particular book or item should not be interpreted as a guarantee of the accuracy of the doctrine or information contained within it. Only the Bible can be recommended without reservation. We strive to provide a wide variety of sound materials for individual and congregational needs. We are family owned, faithful members of the Lord's church and we look forward to serving you. Please let us know of any way we may assist you.

Sincerely,
